

Autumn Term 2011

Dear Students, Parent(s) and supporters:

New Classes at Our School

This year, we have had a generous intake of children to our Chinese school. We believe that the earlier that you learn Chinese, the better. Thus, we are happy to announce we have a new Year 1 class has been organised this term.

Also, we now have a new A2 Level class, which will be preparing for the A2 Chinese exam in 2012.

We warmly welcome all our new students and the new year 2 teacher –Mrs Yeh- to the school.

Exams Coming Soon

Many students will be participating exams during the 2012 summer exam season, and everyone is working very hard. The exams that will be taken include: GCSE, AS, A2 & ASSET Languages. The class teachers are supporting the students to prepare for their exams; if you have any question and concern about them feel free to speak to the school or the class teacher. Good luck to them all!

Chinese New Year Celebration

We are planning to organise a party on Saturday 28th January 2012, from 2.00pm to 5.00pm for celebrating the Chinese New Year 2012. The coming year is particularly special, since it is the year of dragon. We hope this party will be an educational experience, where we hope that everyone will become immersed into Chinese culture, but also have fun. All students, parents and relatives are invited to come to the party.

If you have any suggestion regarding the programme for our party, or are willing to volunteer some of your time either organising or on the day, please speak to the class teachers or our head teacher Mrs Li Xiao.

Further details concerning the programme for the party and the venue will be given at a later date.

Dates for Your Diary

Saturday 10th December 2011

Saturday 7th January 2012

Saturday 28th January 2012

Saturday 18th February 2012

Saturday 31st March 2012

Last day of autumn 2011 term

First day of spring 2012 term

Chinese New Year Party Celebration

Spring half term

Last day of the spring 2012 term

More detailed timetable and other information available from our school website:

www.dacorum-chinese-school.org.uk